48. The terms “including,” “include” or “includes” shall be without limitation.

49. The terms “relate to,” “related to” or “relating to” shall be construed in their broadest sense and shall mean concern, comprise, consist of, refer to, contain, mention, describe, embody, constitute, support, corroborate, demonstrate, prove, evidence, show, refute, dispute, rebut, controvert, contradict, negate, reflect or be in any way logically or factually connected to, whether directly or indirectly.

50. Each request calls for not only documents in your possession, custody or control, but also for documents, information, and knowledge that is available to you upon reasonable inquiry or request directed to any entity or individual that is an agent, representative, employee, or affiliate of yours.

51. Where any request cannot be complied with in full, the request shall be deemed to require you to provide the reasons for such inability to comply.

52. If any document requested herein was formerly in your possession, custody or control and has been lost or destroyed or otherwise disposed of, you are requested to submit in lieu of any such document a written statement (a) describing in detail the nature of the document and its contents, (b) identifying the person(s) who prepared or authored the document, and, if applicable, the person(s) to whom the document was sent, (c) specifying the date on which the document was prepared or transmitted, and (d) specifying the date on which the document was lost or destroyed and, if destroyed, the conditions of and reasons for such destruction and the person(s) requesting and performing the destruction.

53. If any document requested herein is withheld on the basis of any claim of privilege, you are requested to submit in lieu of any such document, a written statement (a) identifying the person(s) who prepared or authored the document and, if applicable, the person(s) to whom the document was sent or shown, (b) specifying the date on which the document was prepared or transmitted, (c) describing the nature of the document (e.g., letter, telegram, etc.), (d) stating briefly why the document is claimed to be privileged or to constitute work product and (e) identifying the paragraph(s) of this Second Request for Production of Documents to which the document relates.

54. If a portion of an otherwise responsive document contains information subject to a claim of privilege, those portions of the document subject to the claim of privilege shall be deleted or redacted from the document following the instructions in the preceding paragraph and the rest of the document shall be produced.

55. These Requests shall be deemed continuing so as to require further and supplemental production by you in the event you receive or obtain additional responsive information or documents.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. In answering and responding to these document requests, please furnish each and every Document that is in your possession, custody, or control, or that is in the possession, custody, or control of your principals, agents, employees, attorneys, representatives, insurers, and any other persons or entities acting on your behalf.

2. Each request for Documents seeks production of the Document in its entirety, without abbreviation, redaction, expurgation, or modification, including all attachments, enclosures, or other matters affixed thereto. Documents attached to each other, including, but not limited to, by staple, clip, tape, e-mail attachment, or "Post-It" note, should not be separated. The production must also include, where applicable, any index tabs, file dividers, designations, binder spine labels, or other similar information as to the source and/or location of the Documents.

3. Draft or non-identical copies are to be considered separate Documents for purposes of these requests. Any and all drafts and copies of each Document that is responsive to any Document request shall be produced, as shall all copies of such Documents that are not identical in any respect, including, but not limited to, copies containing handwritten notes, markings, stamps, or interlineations. The author(s) of all handwritten notes should be identified.

4. Where the Documents responsive to a request are stored electronically, any responsive e-mails, Word documents, and other unstructured data are to be produced in TIFF format. Any responsive Excel charts, databases, and other structured data are to be produced in native format.

5. If any responsive Document is no longer in existence, cannot be located or is not in your possession, custody or control, identify it, describe its subject matter and describe its disposition, including, without limitation, identifying the person or persons: (a) having knowledge of the contents of the Document and/or its destruction, deletion or disposition; and (b) responsible for its destruction, deletion or other disposition.

6. If you cannot fully respond to a document request, after a diligent attempt to obtain the requested information, you must answer the Document request to the extent possible, specify the portion of the Document request you are unable to answer, and provide whatever information you have regarding the unanswered portion.

7. If any request or any portion thereof is objected to, state the grounds for objection with specificity and produce Documents to the extent the request is not objected to.

8. If you withhold any Document, or any portion of any Document, under a claim of attorney-client, work product, or other privilege, you shall produce, in accordance with Rule 26 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Rule 26.2 of the Local Rules of the Southern District of New York, a written privilege log that sets forth: (a) the author of the Document; (b) the type of Document, e.g., letter or memorandum; (c) the date of the Document; (d) all recipients of the Document; (e) such other information as is sufficient to identify the Document; and (f) the nature of the privilege asserted.

9. If you claim that a portion of a Document is protected from disclosure for any reason, produce such Document with redaction of only the portion claimed to be protected. Any Document produced in redacted form should clearly indicate on its face that it has been redacted, and the basis upon which such information is redacted should be fully stated.

10. The following rules of construction apply to all Document requests:

- a. The terms “any,” “all,” “each,” and “every” should be understood in either their most or least inclusive sense as necessary to bring within the scope of the Document requests all responses that might otherwise be construed to be outside of their scope.

- b. The connectives “and” and “or” shall be construed either disjunctively or conjunctively as necessary to bring within the scope of the Document requests all responses that might otherwise be construed to be outside of their scope.
- c. The use of the singular form of any word shall be taken to mean the plural as well as the singular, and the use of the plural form of any word shall be taken to mean the singular as well as the plural.
- d. The use of a verb in any tense, mood, or voice shall be construed as the use of the verb in all tenses, moods, or voices, as necessary to bring within the scope of the Document requests all responses that might otherwise be construed to be outside of their scope.

11. These Document requests are continuing in nature. If, after producing any documents in response to these document requests, you obtain or become aware of additional responsive information, you are required to provide such information or documents by way of a supplemental production.

RELEVANT TIME PERIOD

The relevant time period, unless otherwise indicated, shall be from January 1, 2012, through present and shall include all Documents and information which relate in whole or in part to such period, or to events or circumstances during such period, even though dated, prepared, generated, or received prior or subsequent to that period.
